ECA Group awarded a €4M contract by Sonatrach

ECA Group, a Groupe Gorgé company, has been awarded a service contract from the Algerian state-owned oil group Sonatrach for the Arzew natural gas liquefaction plant in Algeria.

This contract of more than €4 million provides for the cleaning of the four seawater inlet galleries of the plant thanks to the VISIT submarine system of ECA Group. This powerful 6-ton vehicle equipped with hydraulic tools will clean all the walls of the pipes. These works should be completed during Summer 2019.

With this new contract, Sonatrach renews for the fourth time its confidence in ECA Group for the realization of this type of work, confirming the expertise and know-how of ECA Group in the field of the energy industry, especially for the cleaning of large hydraulic structures using underwater systems.

Next report

Publication of third quarter revenue on Friday October 26, 2018 before market opening.
